Detailed Itinerary

1 Day 1

Morning pickup from Manali and drive towards Jibhi via Aut Tunnel and Banjar Valley. Scenic Himalayan roads through pine forests and river valleys. Visit Jibhi Waterfall en route. Evening at leisure to acclimatise and relax in the village surroundings. Overnight: Jibhi

2 Day 2

Drive across Jalori Pass and descend towards Rampur. Continue along the Sutlej River, passing the Kinnaur Rock Gate and Karcham Dam. Experience narrow cliff roads typical of Kinnaur Valley. Overnight: Sangla

3 Day 3

Morning walk through Sangla Valley orchards. Visit Chitkul, the last village near the Indo-China border, and stop at Hindustan ka Aakhri Dhaba. Continue towards Kalpa and enjoy sunset views of the Kinner Kailash range. Overnight: Kalpa

4 Day 4

Gradual transition from green valleys to the cold desert landscape of Spiti. Stop at Khab to witness the confluence of Sutlej and Spiti rivers. Break at Nako Village and Lake before continuing to Tabo. Visit the historic Tabo Monastery. Overnight: Tab

5 Day 5

Morning excursion to Gue Village, known for its naturally preserved mummy. Continue along the Spiti River towards Kaza. Reach by afternoon and explore the local market or cafés. Overnight: Kaza

6 Day 6

Explore the high-altitude villages and monasteries around Kaza including Key Monastery, Langza Buddha Statue, Hikkim (world’s highest post office) and Komic (one of the highest motorable villages). Overnight: Kaza

7 Day 7

Drive via Losar, cross Chicham Bridge and ascend to Kunzum Pass. Visit Kunzum Mata Temple. Proceed towards Chandratul and walk from the last motorable point to the lake (subject to road and weather conditions). Overnight: Chandratul Camp

8 Day 8

Early start from Chandratul. Drive through Batal and Chhatru, stop at Chacha-Chachi Dhaba. Cross Atal Tunnel and reach Manali by evening. Tour concludes.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Is this 7N 8D Spiti tour suitable for first-time visitors?

Yes. This itinerary is designed with gradual altitude gain, balanced driving hours and proper acclimatisation, making it suitable for first-time as well as repeat Spiti travellers.

2. What is the starting and ending point of the tour?

The tour starts and ends in Manali. Pickup and drop are arranged in Manali as per the fixed departure schedule.

3. Which places are covered in this 7N 8D Spiti itinerary?

The itinerary covers Jibhi, Sangla, Chitkul, Kalpa, Tabo, Gue Village, Kaza, high-altitude villages (Key, Langza, Hikkim, Komic) and Chandratol Lake.

4. Is Chandratol Lake guaranteed in this itinerary?

Chandratol Lake is seasonal and road-dependent. Access is subject to weather, road conditions and administrative permissions. Safety-based decisions by the trip lead are final.

5. What type of accommodation is provided during the tour?

Accommodation is provided in clean hotels, guesthouses and camps on a twin or triple sharing basis. Properties are selected based on location, safety and availability in high-altitude regions.

6. What meals are included in the package?

Daily breakfast and dinner are included at all stays, including Chandratol camps. Meals are simple, hygienic and suitable for high-altitude travel.

7. What transport options are available for this tour?

This itinerary is available as a Bike Fixed Departure, Tempo Traveller, SUV or 4x4 tour. The route and experience remain the same; only the travel style changes.

8. How physically demanding is this Spiti tour?

The tour involves long drives, high altitude and limited facilities. Moderate fitness is recommended. No trekking experience is required, but travellers should be comfortable with basic mountain conditions.

9. Is medical support available during the tour?

Basic first-aid support and oxygen cylinders are carried during the tour. However, due to the remote nature of Spiti, travellers should carry personal medicines and consult a doctor before travelling.

10. Why should I book this Spiti tour with Travel Master Adventure?

Travel Master Adventure is a Manali-based Himalayan tour operator with strong on-ground control, experienced drivers and safety-first execution. The focus is on realistic planning, not rushed or over-promised itineraries.
